We, the family of Cynthia (Cindy) Anne Smith would like to express our thanks for every act of kindness shown us during our time of sorrow. There aren't enough words to express the love and concern that has been shown our family. Our friends, neighbors, family and pastor have helped beyond anything we can say in words. God always knows best and we thank him for letting us have her for 23 years. There are so many beautiful memories and these we will cherish forever. Knowing she was loved by so many people has been a comfort to us. A very special thank you to our pastor, Rev. J. N. Williams, Jr.

50. Memoriams

In loving memory of Mrs. Natalie Robertson, who passed away one year ago Dec. 24, 1979.
God sees when the Footsteps falter
When the pathway
has grown too steep
Then he touches the weary eyelids,
And gives his
Dear ones sleep.
No treasure on earth
Can replace you
It's a sorrow too great
To be told,
But to us who loved
and lost you,
Your memory will never Grow old.
Sadly missed by:

39 troopers graduate

The 69th Session of the State Police Academy graduation of 39 troopers was held at State Police Headquarters, Richmond, at 10 a.m., December 19, 1980, Colonel D. M. Slane, Superintendent of the Department, announced recently.

In addition to a minimum of 30 days of field training with an experienced trooper, the graduates will have had 18 weeks of basic training which included field and classroom work totalling 921 hours, exclusive of study periods, and covered 110 subjects.

The new troopers will report to their duty stations December 22. There are now 965 troopers, including the graduates, stationed throughout the state. These do not include uniformed supervisory personnel.

Main speaker for the ceremonies was The Honorable T. Rodman Layman, Secretary of Public Safety. Colonel Slane also addressed the class.

Troopers from this area who graduated include Jeffrey Kim Brown of Concord, who was assigned to the Appomattox troop; Philip Cameron Bowles of Farmville, who was assigned to the Ashland troop; and Charles Bruce Stauffer of Lynchburg, who was assigned to the troop at Broadway.

FBLA celebrates

Christmas is a time when people gather together to sing carols, eat food, and just have an enjoyable time. The Future Business Leaders of America celebrated Christmas at Babcock Manor on Monday, December 15, 1980.

The residents and FBLA members sang a number of Christmas carols and had refreshments after wards. The smiles on everyone's face was just one sign that Christmas is in the air.

We, the Future Business Leaders of America, would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Meadows in D.C.

M. Bruce Meadows of Richmond, former campaign press secretary to Congress-elect Thomas J. Bliley, Jr., is working in the press office of the Presidential Inaugural Committee-1981 in Washington, D.C. Meadows is helping publicize the many events surrounding Inauguration Day.

Meadows has been involved in Republican party work since 1976, when he was a volunteer for the Ford campaign. The following year he volunteered in the Dalton campaign for governor, and in Warner's 1978 Senate race.

His political career began as an intern in Senator Warner's Norfolk office after the election Meadows has also worked as a staff assistant to John J. Rhodes, Minority Leader of the House, in 1978, and as an administrative assistant to State Senator A. Joe Canada, Jr. (R-Va. Beach). He is a member of the Chesterfield County Republican Committee.

Meadows will receive his B.A. in political science from Old Dominion University in Norfolk this June. After the January 20 inauguration, he intends to return to Richmond to work with constituents in Congressman Bliley's local office.

Meadows' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Meadows, reside in Chesterfield County. Meadows is the nephew of Mrs. Louie M. Clifton and Mrs. Elsie Ranson of Appomattox. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meadows are formerly of Pamplin, Virginia.

Troop 546 holds Court of Honor

On Sunday, December 21, Boy Scout Troop 546 of Appomattox held a Court-Of-Honor in Rhodes Hall of St. Anne's Church.

Along with the normal presentation of merit badges and advancement there were two special ceremonies. Two new scouts were inducted into the troop, Mike Hansen and Dennis Reynolds. There was also the very special and most unusual Double Eagle Ceremony.

The Eagle Scout Award was presented to Luis E. Garcia and Mike Carmody. It is most unusual for two Eagle awards to be presented in one ceremony since less than one percent of all scouts reach Eagle.

Lloyd Walton, Superintendent of Appomattox County School System was guest speaker for the occasion.

At this joyous time of year, we extend best wishes to all our neighbors.
